VANCOUVER, BC – January 15th, 2002 Mr. David Westrheim, President & CEO of IntelliNet announced today that former Sales Manager, Mr. Terry Gowan has been recruited and appointed as Vice President of Business Development at IntelliNet.

Formerly, Mr. Gowan was National Sales Manager of a Canadian National IT Services company under the ownership and management of Mr. Westrheim for a five (5) year term, ending during late 1998. While there, he was instrumental at functioning in a senior sales capacity with major accounts, recruiting and managing the company sales personnel and participating as a member of the management team. Since that time, Terry has been working with an International Software Vendor providing software solutions in the $250,000 and up range throughout Canada, the United States and in Australia.

According to Mr. David Westrheim, President & CEO of IntelliNet, The ability to provide excellence in performance for our clients in this business is only possible with exemplary people who have well above average skills developed over many, many years time. Westrheim went on to say that, Terry Gowan and I have a proven relationship and track record in this business developed over a five year term together. I am absolutely delighted to have successfully recruited Terry to take back his former post in our management team.

Terry Gowan commented, I am truly excited to join IntelliNet as I have a very successful long term relationship with David Westrheim . He went on to say that, there appears to be a real shortage of excellent Managed Services Providers (MSP) throughout Canada and the response to IntelliNet has been outstanding.

Former clients and strategic partners as well as other industry professionals are invited to contact Terry Gowan at either (604) 540-5001 or email at tgowan@intellinet-canada.com.
